Help students succeed with homework at the Main Library.

WHAT IS HOMEWORK CENTRAL?

Homework Central is a safe, comfortable space at the Main Library where students can drop in and work on homework independently, or with the help of a volunteer. Homework Central is equipped with computers, reference materials, and school supplies for student use.

HOW WOULD I HELP AS A VOLUNTEER?

Volunteers are needed to:

- Assist students with homework and study skills.
- Create a welcoming atmosphere.
- Serve as a positive role model.

WHAT QUALIFICATIONS DO I NEED AS A VOLUNTEER?

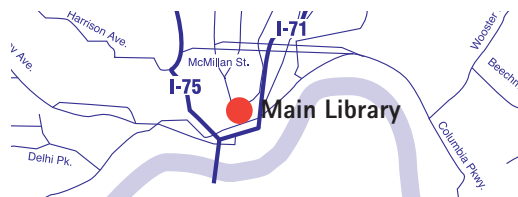

Volunteers should be:

- Dedicated to education and believe in the value of homework.
- Able to communicate with students of diverse backgrounds and learning abilities.
- Enthusiastic and friendly in leadership style.
- Able to get to the Main Library.

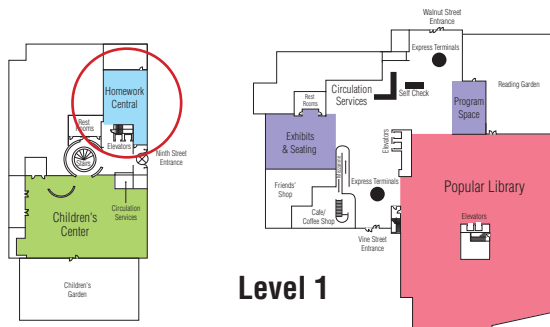

Training is provided. A minimum of two hours of volunteer time is required per week.

I hereby apply to volunteer as a Homework Coach at the Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, though I understand that applying does not guarantee a Homework Central volunteer position. If I become a volunteer, I will honor my time commitment and notify appropriate staff if I am unable to work. I agree to the Hamilton County Sheriff's background check. I will follow the policies, rules, and regulations established by the staff of the Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County.
