Friends of the Public Library to Host 20th Annual St. Patrick's Day Celebration on March 15 at Main Library, 12 Noon

Celtic dancing, music and more will fill the Atrium of the Main Library, 800 Vine Street, on Friday, March 15, 12 noon for the Library's 20th Annual St. Patrick's Day Celebration. The free event, sponsored by the Friends of the Public Library, will include music by Tom Scheidt and his group Chazz, and Celtic dancing with the McGing Irish Dancers.

Cincinnati has been home to the nationally known McGing Irish Dancers for over 20 years. The dancers have performed across the country as well as overseas. As Cincinnati's leading Irish dance troupe, the dancers are always breaking new ground. Most recently, the dancers were the featured group in the Cincinnati Arts Association Program. The McGing Irish Dancers are also well-recognized and accomplished in competitions, from beginner to world championship level.

The musical group Chazz is the brainchild of Tom Scheidt of Time Machine Productions. It features the Celtic music of Scheidt, who plays guitar, bagpipes and vocals; Kimberley G. on vocals and percussion; and Jim Browning on bass and vocals.
