Peace Quilts by Our Lady of the Rosary School on Display at Greenhills Branch Library through May

Nine colorful peace quilts made by students and staff from Our Lady of the Rosary School in Greenhills are on display through May 31 at the Greenhills Branch Library, 22 Endicott Street. Each student and staff member of the school fabric-painted a quilt square to represent peace, relating to the school-wide theme, "Surrounding Our School with Peace."

After the squares were painted, thirteen 4th – 8th grade students volunteered to assemble the blocks into a quilt. Kindergarten teacher Mary Krause said the group met each Wednesday afternoon for four months to sew all the blocks into quilts. The volunteers were Chelsey Ahlers, Elyse Krause, Katie Devlin, Allison Grider, Stephanie Paratore, Nick Wise, Carla Myerly, Corey Howell, Anna Pineault, Krista Tuttle, Emily Howell, Michelle Guerin and Colleen Krajewski.
