SENIOR ISSUES SERIES AT MAIN LIBRARY & BLUE ASH BRANCH

Want to learn how safe your pension is? Do you know the Medicaid requirements for nursing home care? Do you know what questions to ask when choosing a nursing home? Unsure about the new regulations concerning your 401(k)? Are you a caregiver who doesn't know where to turn?

Join us for a free series of programs with answers to these important questions. Expert speakers from ProSeniors will provide impartial information on each topic and have plenty of time for Questions & Answers. Each program will be offered at the Main Library, 800 Vine Street (downtown), and the Blue Ash Branch Library, 4911 Cooper Road.

Founded in 1975, Pro Seniors is a nonprofit organization that offers free legal and long-term care help to older adults. It gives Ohio residents age 60 and older advice and information they need to solve their legal and nursing home, adult care facility, and home health care problems. Pro Seniors also help Ohio residents under age 60 with Medicaid waiver problems.

The programs are free of charge. No registration is necessary. For more information, contact the Public Documents & Patents Department at the Main Library, (513) 369-6971.
