“Genealogy on the Internet” Saturdays Series at The Public Library January at the Main Library & February at Four Branches

One of the fastest growing hobbies, genealogy, can now be increasingly done using the Internet. The Public Library of Cincinnati & Hamilton County recently subscribed to AncestryPlus, a database that contains census indexes, as well as images. This website, along with HeritageQuest Online and many others, will be covered in “Genealogy on the Internet” presented every Saturday in January at the Main Library and every Saturday in February at four branch libraries. For more information, contact the History & Genealogy Department at 513-369-6905.
