Classic Cars and Books at the Green Township Branch Library

- Friends' Third Annual Green Township Used Book Sale: September 17-19
- Best of the West Cruise-in Car Show: September 18, 12:00-5:00 p.m.

Do classic books and classic cars go together? They do when you combine the Best of the West Cruise-in Car Show and the Friends of the Public Library's Third Annual Used Book Sale at the Green Township Branch Library, 6525 Bridgetown Road, the weekend of September 17-19. Stop by to see a blast from the past with vintage cars on Saturday, September 18 from noon-5:00 p.m. Trophies will be awarded for Best of Show, People's Choice, and Librarian's Choice. Fun, food and music. Free registration begins at 10:00 a.m.

The Friends' Third Annual Green Township Branch Used Book Sale will be held all weekend in the branch meeting room. Browse through fiction and nonfiction, children's books, and more, with prices beginning at fifty cents.

"We'd like to remind our book lovers that although the branch is not open for business on Sunday, the meeting room will be open to accommodate the book sale," said Friends' Executive Director Anne Keller. "Plus, in addition to cash and check, we also accept Visa and MasterCard for payment." Money raised at Friends' book sales is used for adult and children programming, and to add items to the Library's collection.

For a sneak peek, Friend's members can attend a special Preview Sale on Thursday, September 16 from 6:00-8:00 p.m. "If you're not a member, come on down and we can sell you a membership at the door," said Ms. Keller. "Memberships begin at $20.00 a year, and keep you updated on book sales and other Library events."
