Jewish Literature Discussion Series Continues at Symmes Township Branch on Selected Thursdays at 7:00 p.m.

The Symmes Township Branch Library, 11850 Enyart Road, continues to host a free Jewish literature discussion series, A Mind of Her Own: Fathers and Daughters in a Changing World. Each program features a presentation by local Jewish literature scholar Kathy Brichto, and a group discussion about a featured book. The project is funded through a grant from Nextbook, a nonprofit organization that encourages an understanding of Jewish literature, culture and ideas, and the American Library Association. Local program partners include Yavneh Day School and the American Jewish Archives.

- All programs begin at 7:00 p.m.
- Space is limited; please register in advance.
- Multiple copies of the books are available at the Library for check out.
