Traditional Russian Music & Dance with Moscow Nights at Main Library Saturday, April 2, 1:00 p.m.

The world-renowned Russian group Moscow Nights will be performing at the Main Library, 800 Vine Street, on Saturday, April 2 at 1:00 p.m. The free event is presented by the Public Library and the Friends of the Public Library, in partnership with the Cincinnati Museum Center's exhibit Nicholas & Alexandra: At Home with the Last Tsar and His Family.

Moscow Nights is an exciting, versatile trio of world recognized and prize-winning musicians. In a little over two years, they have already established themselves as one of the fastest rising folk groups in the United States.

The repertoire is centered on masterpieces of Russian folklore and represents the diversity of the culture. The concerts have the air of a spontaneous impromptu performance, a coming together to make music, which is one of the hallmarks of folk music. The result is a carefully crafted music that honors the past but moves on and develops.
