Try Out the Novels at Noon Book Club to Whet Your Appetite

Take time out to talk about books at the Main Library! Participating in the Novels at Noon book club is a great way to find out about interesting new books and to share ideas with other readers. Try it out by joining in a discussion of contemporary fiction at an upcoming Novels at Noon meeting. The group meets from noon-1:00 p.m. on the second Monday of every month in Meeting Room 3B at the Main Library, 800 Vine Street.

Bring your lunch--the atmosphere is fun and relaxed, and you are sure to have a great time. On February 13, the book The House of Sand and Fog by Andre Dubus will be discussed. Other notable titles for future discussion include:

- Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time (March 13)
- Gish Jen's The Love Wife (April 10).

A complete list of titles and dates may be found on the program calendar of the Library's web site (www.cincinnatiLibrary.org). Copies of the novels to be discussed will be available in the Fiction Department during the month before the discussion. Please call (513) 369-6918 for more information.

✓ Our goal is to make our programs accessible to everyone. Please request ADA services one week in advance at 513-369-4400 (TTY 369-4409).

✓ Information about events at the Main Library and 41 branch libraries is available on the Internet site: www.CincinnatiLibrary.org.
