Harrison Branch Library Used Book Sale Set for March 2-4

The fifth annual Harrison Branch Library Used Book Sale sponsored by the Friends of the Public Library is set for the weekend of March 2-4. A Members Only & Educators Preview Sale will be held from 2:00-8:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 2. The Harrison Branch Library is located at 10398 New Haven Road.

You can shop for books by your favorite authors or in your areas of interest. The sale also includes a selection of music tapes, CDs, and videos, with prices beginning at 50 cents. Payment can be made with cash, check, Master Card or Visa.

“There is plenty of hardback and paperback fiction that includes general fiction, mystery, horror, romance, science fiction, and westerns,” said Anne Keller, the Friends’ Executive Director. “The nonfiction collection is strong on art, biography, business, cooking, health and fitness, home improvement, military history, science, and sports and travel, just to name a few. There is a great selection of children’s books as well. If you want to take advantage of the Preview Sale, Friends’ memberships can be purchased at the door beginning at $20.00 a year.”

An active group of volunteers in the Harrison community coordinates efforts to get ready for the book sale, as well as recruits new members for the Friends. The book sale will have a wide selection available, but will emphasize children’s books, craft books, cookbooks, gardening and antiques.
