Inventor Product Evaluation Program: The Big Idea Group at Sharonville Branch Library March 3

The Inventor's Council of Cincinnati, Government & Business Department of the Main Library, and Big Idea Group (BIG) are offering inventors the opportunity to utilize a free invention evaluation and refinement service. Inventor Product Evaluation will be presented at the Sharonville Branch Library, 10980 Thornview Drive, on Friday, March 3 from 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Got a great idea for a new consumer product? The Big Idea Group may want your product. Since its start in 2001, BIG has licensed or placed in development 50 products. BIG will provide a free, honest, confidential evaluation of your idea, and if they choose to be your agent, represent you at no charge for any service. BIG looks especially for products in areas of consumer products with special emphasis on the home shopping television market; toys and kids' products; office supply; food products, food packaging and storage; promotion and impulse products; home and garden; pets; tools and tool storage; kitchen and housewares; organization and storage; crafts, scrapbooking; and fitness and health products.

Call the Inventor's Council of Cincinnati @ (513) 319-8450 for questions or comments.

Important Disclaimer:

Big Idea Group wants to ensure that its relationships with inventors and corporate partners are fair and clear. If you plan to submit an idea to Big Idea Group, please carefully read these agreements, which are designed to precisely define its relationship with you and to protect both parties. See www.bigideagroup.net for additional background.
