Read Across America: A Seussabration at Cincinnati Museum Center March 4

To help celebrate Dr. Seuss's birthday, children and their families can stop by the Cinergy Children's Museum in the Cincinnati Museum Center as children's librarians present stories, crafts, games and more on Saturday, March 4 from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. for Read Across America: A Seussabration. Any child showing their Library card at the Children's Museum will receive free admission. Children's librarians will also be on hand to take applications for those needing a card.

Read Across America is a literacy campaign sponsored by the National Education Association (NEA) calling for every child in every school and community to be in the company of a book. Each year the nationwide event is held near Dr. Seuss' March 2nd birthday, with adults and children celebrating reading in every imaginable way.

To find out more about participating, visit the NEA's Read Across America website.
