Reds & Reading for Kids & Teens Now Through May 3 at the Public Library

- Ages 18 & under Enter to Win ...
- Reds Tickets (two sets of four tickets to be given away at all 42 Library locations for a total of 336 tickets in all)
- Plus, a chance to be in a READ poster with a Cincinnati Reds Player

The Public Library of Cincinnati & Hamilton County has teamed up with the Cincinnati Reds for REDS & Reading, a special reading incentive program that goes on now through May 3. During this time anyone age 18 and under is invited to write a 25–50 word book review for a chance to win Cincinnati Reds tickets courtesy of the Reds. Plus, they can also win a chance to be in a “READ” poster with a Reds player! (Kids ages 6 and under can write a 10-word review with help from their parents.)

Here’s How to Enter:

- For a book review form, log onto the Library’s website at <http://www.cincinnatiLibrary.org/news/2006/redsandreading.html> or pick up one at any of the Library’s 42 locations.
- Enter as often as you like.
- A random drawing of the book reviews will be held for four “READ” poster winners* and 84 sets of four tickets to a Cincinnati Reds game courtesy of the Reds. *Winners must be available at time of photo shoot.
- Entries can be dropped off at any Library location. Or, enter online at <http://www.cincinnatiLibrary.org/news/2006/redsandreading.html>.
- Entries must be received by May 3.
