Friends of the Public Library Announce 2007 Used Book Sales

The Friends of the Public Library of Cincinnati & Hamilton County announced its 2007 used book sale schedule, kicking off the new year with the popular Warehouse Sale January 19-21. "This year we will be expanding our sales to different parts of the county," said Friends' Executive Director Anne Keller. "Since it's our 50th anniversary as an organization that supports the Library, we thought it would be appropriate to expand and offer gently used book bargains throughout the year."

The warehouse sale in January and again in August is an opportunity to shop and pick from nearly 100,000 items in the warehouse. The most popular book sale is the 35th annual June sale, held at the Main Library (this sale was formally held on Fountain Square). Smaller sales held at branch locations will directly benefit that branch, as a portion of the sale will go back to the branch. Used book bargains are also available year-round at the Library Friends' Shop in the Main Library downtown, at the Duck Creek Antiques Mall, and during special sales held at the warehouse for Friends' members.
