FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Press Release

March 15, 2007

Moeller High School Symphonic Winds & Jazz Band to Perform at Main Library Saturday, March 24, 2:00 p.m.

Jazz and winds combine as two Moeller High School bands perform at the Main Library, 800 Vine Street, for a special concert on Saturday, March 24. The Moeller Symphonic Winds and Moeller Jazz Band will perform from 2:00- 4:00 p.m. Under the direction of Bob Browning, both bands are gaining a regional and national reputation.

Moeller Symphonic Winds perform several concerts throughout the school year, playing great classical and popular music from the Renaissance to the present, including standard band literature as well as transcriptions from the great classical masters. This group also performs at the OMEA Large Group Adjudicated event and consistently earn “Superior” ratings. Every two years the band travels to a major city to perform at music festivals or public concerts. Past trips have included Chicago (1998, first place in Midwest Music Festival), Washington, D.C. (2000, concert on the Capitol steps), New York (2002, concerts at Lincoln Center and South Street Seaport), Boston (2004, concerts at Fanuel Hall), and Chicago (2006).

The Moeller Jazz Band is an extra-curricular ensemble whose members are chosen by audition. In addition to performing at the Christmas and Spring concerts, the Jazz Band travels to various cities to participate in jazz festivals, winning awards for their outstanding musicianship.
