Clifton Branch Library to Be Open on Sunday Starting April 1

Thanks to an anonymous donor, the Clifton Branch Library, 351 Ludlow Avenue, will now be open on Sundays starting April 1, from 1:00-5:00 p.m.

This is the first time a donor has offered funding to provide staffing for additional service hours. The donor has agreed to provide the funds needed for three years, unless Library funding is restored and can absorb the additional operating cost.

“This generous gift makes the branch more convenient and accessible for our users,” said Library Executive Director Kimber Fender. “Because of budget constraints five years ago, we were forced to close all libraries except the Main Library on Sunday. This will be a great opportunity to give a much-needed service back to our customers.”

Beginning Sunday, April 1, the branch hours will be:

Sunday: 1:00-5:00 p.m.

Monday, Tuesday & Thursday: Noon-8:00 p.m.

Wednesday, Friday & Saturday: 10:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m.

The Clifton Branch opened in a storefront on Ludlow Avenue in 1954, expanded into an adjacent storefront in 1962, and again in 2003 when another expansion and remodeling project was completed.

The branch will be closed on Sunday, April 8 for the Easter holiday. For additional information call (513) 369-4447.
