Really Cool Stuff for West Side Parents & Kids

Green Township Branch Library Holds Expo on July 21

Family friendly businesses and organizations that call Green Township and surrounding communities their home will be at the Green Township Branch Library's Really Cool Stuff for Parents & Kids, an expo connecting families with fun, educational activities right in their own community.

From 2:00-4:00 p.m., on Saturday, July 21, parents, caregivers, and kids can enjoy activities and games and free snacks and drinks—generously provided by Bridgetown Finer Meats and Catering, GFS Marketplace, and Hattings Supermarket. In addition to information, some of the featured businesses and organizations will also provide families with free demonstrations.

These vehicles from Green Township Fire and EMS will be at the Green Township Branch Library's Really Cool Stuff for Parents & Kids expo on July 21.

Nishime Family Karate will give a free demonstration at the event.
