Westside Library Hosts Battle of the Bands

August 18, 12:00 – 5:00 p.m., at the Green Township Branch Library

Local teens will “rock out” during the third annual Battle of the Bands. To be held at the Green Township Branch Library (6525 Bridgetown Road) on Saturday, August 18, this exciting music competition will bring together a dozen teen rock bands from around Hamilton County to compete for prizes while performing in front of an audience. The first band will take the stage at noon, and the final set will begin around 5:00 p.m.

These talented musical crusaders will battle to win the grand prize: a show and DVD package at The H.A.T., a local venue on the west side of town. Members of the local band Arlington, who championed the Library’s inaugural Battle in 2005, will judge this year’s performances to determine 2007 winner.

The audience will enjoy a range of rock music – from classic rock and heavy metal to emo and pop – as well as hot dogs and buns from Bridgetown Finer Meats, snacks from Don Hattings Supermarket, and drinks from Jeff’s Marathon in Bridgetown. In between performances audience members can also enter to win gift certificates to Aroma’s Java and Gelato, to Zen & Now Coffee House, and to other local businesses.
