Musicians Perform “Jazz of the Month Club” at the Main Library

The sounds of jazz will ring through the Main Library when the Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County once again presents the “Jazz of the Month Club” on select Saturdays at 2:00 p.m.

Beginning September 15, well-known jazz artists will perform in the Main Library’s Atrium as part of the series supported by internationally known saxophonist and authority on jazz education Jamey Aebersold. This is the second year that Mr. Aebersold has supported these quality jazz performances at the Library.

He has a Masters Degree in Saxophone (he also plays piano, bass, and banjo) and an Honorary Doctorate of Music from Indiana University. In 1989, the International Association of Jazz Educators inducted him into their Hall of Fame, which includes other luminaries such as Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Charlie Parker, and Louis Armstrong.

At the concerts, listeners can enter to win one of five CDs courtesy of Double Time Jazz. In addition, five play-along sets – courtesy of Jamey Aebersold Jazz – will be given away at each of the eight “Jazz of the Month Club” concerts. The school group that brings the largest number of students (minimum of 5) will receive the jazz play-along sets, which include sheet music and a CD with rhythm section accompaniment – perfect tools for practicing jazz improvisation. (If more than one school brings the same number of students, the play-a-longs will go to the first to arrive.)
