Public Library Hosts Summer Enrichment Fair with Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency

Looking for something for your child or teenager to do this summer? Can't afford to spend a lot of money on a summer activity? Then check out the Summer Enrichment Fair brought to you by the Public Library of Cincinnati & Hamilton County and the Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency!

On Saturday, March 29 from 1:30 to 4:00, dozens of organizations will be at CAA at 1740 Langdon Farm Road (Jordan Crossing) to showcase the various summer services they provide for children ages 4 to 18! Information will be available on summer camps, classes, and activities in many different areas including science and nature, performing and visual arts, health and fitness, and academic studies.

Help your child or teen stay mentally and physically active during the summer. It's a great way for them to make new friends while they explore, create, discover and learn. So come to the Summer Enrichment Fair at CAA on March 29 to find out about the many opportunities for summer fun in Cincinnati! Free Admission. Free parking.
