Create an Artistic Masterpiece @ the Public Library

Library to host art classes for kids to celebrate 2008 Butterfly Show

Kids, preschool to age 12, can “wing it” at 13 different library branches by participating in art classes that celebrate the beautiful world of butterflies. While making a creative masterpiece, they’ll learn about butterflies and China. Sponsored by the Kersten Fund, the series of classes are in partnership with the Krohn Conservatory Butterfly Show 2008.

Kids will have the opportunity to create one piece of art to take home and one to donate for display during this year’s Butterfly Show. This year’s theme, The Silk Road celebrates Chinese culture as well as the majestic showcase of thousands of butterflies that will be on display. The exhibit will be open from April 19 – June 15.

✓ Our goal is to make our programs accessible to everyone. Please request ADA services one week in advance at 369-4400 (TTY 369-4409).

✓ For more information, email Programs@CincinnatiLibrary.org or call 369-6945.

Jake Jasper, 11, (center) of Mt. Washington and sisters Kaia, 8, and Jaiya McKenney, 4, of College Hill show off their butterfly themed artwork.
