“The Birth of Coffee” Percolates Interest at the Library

Author Linda Rice Lorenzetti and photographer Daniel Lorenzetti traveled a quarter of a million miles to trace the origins of a dark brew. The result of their journey, The Birth of Coffee Exhibition, will be on display from now through October 5 in the Main Library Atrium, 800 Vine Street, downtown.

Duo-tone photographs, literally toned with coffee, and interwoven with descriptive text, bring coffee lovers face-to-face with the people who nurture their beloved beverage from seed to cup. The Lorenzettis will visit the Main Library on Saturday, September 6, at 2:00 p.m., to share more of their odyssey through eight coffee producing countries and sign copies of the exhibition’s companion book – the ultimate in coffee table titles! The book will be available for purchase in the Library Friends’ Shop.

The Birth of Coffee Exhibition is organized by The Image Expedition and sponsored by Folgers Coffee Company.
