Public Library “Gets Butterflies” Over Krohn Conservatory Partnership

Spread your wings this spring as the International Butterfly Show celebrates the treasures of India. In partnership with the Krohn Conservatory, the Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County is “winging it,” so kids can learn more about butterflies and India. Plus, they can make a beautiful work of art to take home (along with one to donate for display at the Krohn Conservatory 2009 Butterfly Show: Flowers with Wings - Butterflies of India, open April 18 - June 21).

Time will flutter by at participating branch libraries!

Jake Jasper, 12, (center) of Mt. Washington and sisters Kaia, 9, and Jaiya McKenney, 5, of Bond Hill show off their butterfly themed artwork.
