Volunteers Add New Flavor to an Old Favorite

ATLA's Annual Holiday & Nearly New Used Book Sale | November 12-14 at the Anderson Branch Library

Led by this year's Co-chairs Jane Young, left, and Jean Regnold, the Anderson Township Library Association is adding some new flavor to the annual Holiday and Nearly New Used Book Sale.

Just in time for the Holidays! The Anderson Township Library Association (ATLA), known for hosting one of the best used book sales in the region, is gearing up for its annual "Holiday and Nearly New" Used Book Sale. The sale will be held November 12-14 at the Anderson Branch Library (7450 State Road, 369-6030), located at the intersection of Five Mile & State Roads.

Nearly new books of every variety – children's, cooking, fiction, gardening, rare books, and more – as well as movies on DVDs, music CDs, and audiobooks will be available starting at $3. A collection of book-themed baskets – like this "Tea-Time at the Master's" gift basket pictured at right – will make the perfect Holiday gift for the book lovers on your list! Prices range from $12 to $25, and baskets include book-related accessories, too!

Not only are there plenty of great bargains to be had, but shoppers can also feel good about knowing proceeds from the sale will be used to benefit the Anderson and Mt. Washington branch libraries.
