Get into the spirit of the season with HallowREAD Week Oct. 22-31

Who: Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County

What: HallowREAD Week

Where: At the Main Library and all 40 Library locations

When: Starts Sunday, Oct. 22, and runs through Tuesday, Oct. 31

To celebrate Halloween and the spine-tingling thrills of reading, the Library is giving children age 12 and under a spooky passport, or parents can print one at CincinnatiLibrary.org.

For every visit to any Library location, a staff member will stamp the passport and the child will receive a piece of candy or a prize. On the third visit, they will receive a free book. (One book per child; all subsequent visits receive only candy or prize.) Parents or adult caregivers will also receive a coupon good for a discount at the Friends of the Library Shop in the Main Library, 800 Vine St., Downtown Cincinnati. For more information, call 513-369-6900.

About The Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County
