Find the missing pieces to your personal library at the ATLA fall used book sale

For Immediate Release  Lisa.Mauch@CincinnatiLibrary.org  Angela.Hursh@CincinnatiLibrary.org

CINCINNATI — Looking for that elusive title to complete your book collection, or the latest chapter in your favorite series? Come to the Anderson Township Library Association’s annual fall used book sale. Gently used books in all types of genres, including fiction, history, collectibles, art, gardening, cooking, and children’s books, are available. Rounding out the sale are games, puzzles, CDs, and DVDs, plus the always popular table of graphic novels and comic books.

The fall sale is at the Anderson Branch Library, located at 7450 State Road. The days and times for this year’s sale are:

• 10 a.m.–8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7
• 10 a.m.–6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 8
• 10 a.m.–5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 9

Funds raised from both the raffle and sale help support adult and children’s programs, as well as purchase books, audiovisual material, and special equipment at the Anderson and Mt. Washington branch libraries. Thanks to the support of the Anderson and Mt. Washington community, ATLA raised $30,185.65 at its June Used Book Sale.

Book sale donations may be dropped off at either the Anderson or Mt. Washington branches. For additional information about ATLA, its book sales, or volunteering, please call 513-369-6030. ATLA accepts checks and cash; no credit cards please.

About the Anderson Township Library Association
The Anderson Township Library Association (ATLA) is a volunteer group that supports the facilities, services, and resources of the Anderson and Mt. Washington branch libraries. The major efforts of the Committee are two annual book sales. Funds raised by these sales are used to support adult and children’s programs, purchase books, audiovisual material, and special equipment. To learn more, visit www.CincinnatiLibrary.org/support/ATLA.html or call 5130369-6030.
