CINCINNATI — In honor of Women’s History Month this March the Downtown Main Library presents LadyFest, a celebration of women’s health and wellness. The event will provide valuable on-site resources to female-identifying individuals of all ages and backgrounds, with representatives from various local and national organizations.

LadyFest runs noon to 4 p.m. Friday, March 6, in the Genealogy & Local History Program Space on the third floor. National Alliance on Mental Illness and Ohio Equity Institute are educating and providing services. Also, the Caracole’s Mobile Testing Van is going to be at Vine Street to provide basic health screenings.

The event is providing kid-friendly activities as well. No registration is required. Participating organizations:

- Lighthouse Youth & Family Services
- Freestore Foodbank
- Hamilton County Office of Re-Entry
- Greater Cincinnati Native American Coalition
- Buckeye Health
- Caracole
- NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness)
- Ohio Equity Institute
- Cradle Cincinnati
- Sweet Cheeks Diaper Bank
- Healthy Moms & Babes
- Planned Parenthood
- Cancer Justice Network
- YWCA
- Hoxworth Blood Center
- Crossport Cincinnati
- Hamilton County Commission on Women & Girls

A single day isn’t enough to celebrate women! Check out the LadyFest events happening all month at various branches. Find an event near you at CincinnatiLibrary.evanced.info/signup/List. Or call 513-369-6900.

About the Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County
The Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County is one of the oldest, largest, and busiest libraries in the United States. We serve a population of more than 800,000 people with a collection of more than nine million items. Our mission is to connect people with the world of ideas and information. To learn more, visit CincinnatiLibrary.org or call 513-369-6900.